Terms and Conditions of Membership

- i. In these Terms and Conditions the Company means Pembrokeshire Coastal Forum CiC and the Member means the firm, company or organisation on whose behalf they are acting or purporting to act.
- ii. Subscriptions are payable in sterling only.
- iii. The Company will issue an invoice for all applications. Payment Terms are 30 days from date of applying or immediately if wanting to utilise member discount rates at a Marine Energy Wales event.
- iv. Payment to be made by BACS/CHAPS transfer or by Cheque only.
- v. Membership is continuous, until revoked in writing and acknowledged. Three months' notice is required. New Members only have a fifteen day period in which to revoke membership and receive a full refund (provided no services have been used) otherwise no refunds are available.
- vi. The full membership year runs from April-March in line with our financial year. An applicant's membership will however run from the quarter that their application request falls in, with the cost reduced in line with the quarter that the membership begins from.
- vii. Membership fees are revised annually and will be notified to members in writing.
- viii. Terms and Conditions of membership, may be revised from time to time and will be notified to Members by email.
- ix. Subscription payments not received within one month of becoming due will result in the membership being considered lapsed and all services may be suspended pending payment. However, membership charges will continue to accrue, together with interest at 2% above base rate until resignation is received in writing, subject to (vi) above.
- x. Pembrokeshire Coastal Forum CiC is not currently a VAT registered company.
- xi. Payments for applications from organisations with non-UK mailing addresses may be subject to mailing cost surcharges.
- xii. Membership is intended for employees of the named Member. Parent or other related companies are expected to join in their own right if employees of those companies wish to receive member benefits.
- xiii. Company details, as provided by the Member, are held on computer, and are published in printed lists and via the Internet.
- xiv. Orders placed with the company shall constitute a contract when the Member either signs the order or confirms their acceptance by email.
- xv. Contracts between the Member and the Company shall be governed by the Laws of England and Wales and the Member and the Company submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
- xvi. The Member gives consent to the Company to carry out a credit search on the partners and directors of the organisation now or at a future date. The credit search will be recorded by the Company.
- xvii. All membership benefits and services are offered subject to availability and the Company accepts no liability for failure to provide any such benefits and services.
- xviii. In the first instance all enquiries should be directed to holly.pretious@marineenergywales.co.uk
- xix. The services provided by the Company to Members will not, unless specifically agreed in writing by the Company, include professional or technical advice.
- xx. It is the responsibility of the Member to inform Pembrokeshire Coastal Forum CiC of any change in the main contact responsible for membership and for any change in their email address.

* The MEW working group meetings have been oversubscribed for the last 5 years. The core membership includes primarily technology developers, along with tier 1 supply chain companies, the public sector and enabling organisations. To maintain the working ethos of the meetings the core membership will have priority in terms of attendance. Other businesses maybe invited to attend on a case by case basis, usually to present, share and exchange knowledge to the benefit of the marine energy sector in Wales.
